

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Smethcote Registers.

SMETHCOTE is a parish in the diocese of Lichfield, and in the rural deanery and hundred of Condover; it lies 9 miles south-west from Shrewsbury, and 5 miles north of Church Stretton. The population in 1881 was 283, and the area is 2,705 acres.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, contains the following account of these Registers:—"Smethcott R. Nos. I. II. Bap. Bur. 1612—1812; Marr. 1612—1753. No. III. 1754—1812."

The first volume, which extends from 1609 to 1767, is in bad condition. It was torn and faded, and has suffered much from damp and careless keeping in the past. It consists of 43 leaves of parchment, some few being loose sheets inserted, mostly 12 by 7 inches, but some few 22 by 6 inches. Some entries were illegible, but many have been restored, so that now nearly every entry can be made out. There was no cover, but the volume has recently been newly bound and lettered: "Smethcote Register 1609—1767." The Register was originally in 1612 intended to be divided into three portions, respectively headed—De sepultis, De baptizatis, and De matrimonio coniunctis; but this intended arrangement did not continue long, for after the lapse of a few years entries were inserted wherever a blank space could be found, quite irrespective of date. The result is that the register is in a state of chaos. No attempt has been made to re-arrange the entries in chronological order, or else it would become almost impossible for the custodian of the register to find any special entry, so they are now printed in the exact order in which they occur in the volume. The earliest entries are in a good handwriting, and are in Latin, the entries in that language being retained, where they occur. From 1712 to 1745, C., M., and B., are inserted before the several entries. Many handwritings occur in this Register. The burials for 1612 are reprinted in full; the remaining entries in an abbreviated form. Although there are three or four earlier beginning from the year 1609, the Register commences practically in 1612.

The second volume, which contains baptisms and burials from 1747 to 1812, and marriages to 1753, has thirty-three leaves of parchment, bound in a cover, and is in good condition. From 1801 to 1812, baptisms and burials are recorded on separate pages, each page commencing a new year. The years are written in circles, often with very pretty devices etched round them. At the beginning of this register is an account of a trial in July 1749, concerning the right of advowson of Smethcote Rectory. At the end of the volume is a statement respecting the restoration of Smethcote church in 1850. Loosely inserted inside this register are four parchment leaves, sewn together, containing entries from 1759—1777, when the Register was neglected by the Rev. David Rice. These were collected from family Bibles and other sources, by the Rev. W. C. Curtis, curate, in 1792, and beautifully written out by him, at the request of the Bishop. The number of private baptisms that occur in the eighteenth century is astonishing.

The third volume contains marriages from 1754 to 1811, and is on paper, in the usual printed form. There are eighty-five entries of marriages, filling twenty-nine pages.

Smethcote church is dedicated to St. Michael. It had fallen into a bad condition, and was almost entirely rebuilt in 1850, excepting parts of the north-west and west walls. In the north wall of the chancel is a small Norman window. Two square-headed Norman doorways are preserved, and pieces of Norman arches are built into the wall externally. In the church is an ancient font, not now in use. The ancient chalice has evidently been converted into an Elizabethan cup. At the west end of the church is a circular mound or barrow. The church was originally a chapel of Condover.

In 1392, William Bronington and Isabella his wife, and Roger son of John de Scottes Acton, were patrons of the rectory. In 1653, Thomas Phillips of Netley occurs as patron. Richard Beddowes, of Cotton Hill, by his marriage with Anne daughter of Richard Phillips of Netley became patron, and presented in 1749. The patronage afterwards passed to the Hulme Trustees, in whom it is now vested.

The families of Phillips and Wilding are among the chief families named in the Registers.

The rectors named in the Registers are as follows :—

- 1612. John Shelvocke [? of Hart Hall, Oxon, in 1572], buried 1 June, 1612.
 - 1624—32. Rouland Jaundrell, curate.

N.B.—On July the 26th, 1749; at the Nisi Prius Bar in Shrewsbury, came on, by Writ of Quare impedit, before Baron Clive, a trial concerning the right of Advowson of the Rectory of Smethcott, wherein Mr. Richard Beddow, of Cotton Hill in Salop (the only son and heir, then living, to John Beddow, Cler. late Rector of Smethcott, and of Anne his wife, one of the daughters of Richard Philippes of Netley Esqr., patron of the Rectory of Smethcott) was Plaintiff, and Mrs. Catherine Pope of Wooltaston, spinster, Mr. Joseph Orme, Cler. Curate of Clunbury, and the Right Revd. Richard Lord Bp. of Lich. and Coven. were Defendants. After tedious impleadings of six hours long, the Special Jury, who were some of the principal Men in the County, next Morn brought in their verdict for the plaintiff, and two years Value of the benefice for damages according to Stat. 2nd West^r. At Michaelmas Term following judgment was given at Westminster upon that verdict, and a Writt issued out to the Bp. to amove Joseph Orme, the Usurpative Incumbent, and to admitt a fit clerk at the presentation of Richard Beddow, the true patron in full right.

The very next week after the verdict given at Salop, the Usurpative Incumbent Joseph Orme, in order to shun the odious reproach of being formally amoved by the Bp's Injunction and Inhibition affixed on the Church Door, which he was informed would of course succeed the Verdict, and Judgment when given at Westminster, and also to avoid the restoration of the profits of the benefice since the decease of the last legall Incumbent, Mr. Thomas Beddow (viz., the 26th of June, 1746, to the time of his amoval) and no less desirous to secure his usurping Patroness Mrs. Pope from payment of the damages, waited on the sd. Lord Bp. of Lich. and Cov. (Dr. Richard Smalbroke) at Eccleshall Castle, praying his Ldsp. to accept his resignation of the Benefice, upon which condition he wth proper security w^d execute a penal bond of £500 to indemnify his Ldsp. and successors for ever. The resignation was accepted, and Orme withdrew to his old Cure at Chunbury. In November the Bp. was serv'd with the Writt, who immediately sent to the legal patron Mr. Richard Beddow, requiring him to present a fit Clerk to the Rectory of Smethcott; but before he had presented, the same Bp. dy'd at London in December 1749.

In Feb. following, Dr. Fred. Cornwallis was consecrated Bp. of Lich. and Cov., and in March following Mr. Beddow presented his Clerk, David Rice, Cler. Curate of Leebottwood and Longnor, who was since the late Incumbent's death (viz. Mr. Thos. Beddow's) the only and singular friend of Mr. Richard Beddow in the whole affair. He waited of the New Bp. at London, was admitted and instituted Rector of Smethcott, and in April following was inducted personally to the same, to the universal joy and satisfaction of all haters of oppression and wrong, and of all true lovers of Truth, Justice, Honesty and Virtue.

[The following entries, from 1759 to 1776, are copied from four parchment leaves sewn together, and inserted loosely inside Register No. II.]

Mr. Rice, the late Rector of Smethcote, having neglected to register the Births, Baptism, and Burials, in this parish, from the year 1759 to 1763, and from 1763 to 1777, I William Crosse Curtis, now Curate of Smethcote, have in the year 1792, by Direction of the Lord Bishop of this Diocese, collected the following from such Documents, as I have have been able to procure. [In another hand.] Mr. Rice appears to have kept a Register of Baptisms and Burials for the years 1766, 1767, which may be seen by reference to the last page of the oldest Register here extant.—R. PHAYRE, 1832.—

Thinking that a brief statement of the facts relating to the rebuilding of their Church will be interesting to future Rectors and Parishioners of Smethcote, I have determined, while they are fresh in my memory, to write them down on these spare pages of an old parchment Register. Most truly thankful ought we to be, that it pleased God to put into our hearts the good desire of rebuilding his house, and also that he was graciously pleased to enable us, without loss of life or injury of limb to any one concerned, to bring the same to good effect.

The Church having been for many years in a very dilapidated state, and there being no features of interest in it worthy of preservation, save two or three which will be mentioned hereafter, the Parishioners decided to pull it all down, excepting a small part of the West end, and of the side walls of the Porch, together with a few square yards on each side of the Porch, which old portions can easily be identified by the masonry and joints being so much rougher than those of the new work. The Architect chosen was J. P. Harrison Esq^r. M.A. late of Christ Church, Oxford. The first stone was on the 5th day of June 1849 laid by the wife of the Rector, M^{rs}. Buddicom, the daughter and eventually the heiress of William Pinches, Esq^r. of Ticklerton, Salop.—The whole of the work, with the exception of the East Window, which was made at Shrewsbury, was executed as daywork by country artificers, from the drawings sent by the Architect. The roof was made up partly of the old timber and partly of new oak, and was the design and workmanship of a most ingenious parishioner, named William Hill. The rough stone came from a Quarry in the dingle North of the Church, the free stone, except that used for the tracery of the windows, which is Grinshill Stone, from the Hoar Edge, behind the Lawley. The width of the new Church is the same as that of the old one, but it is $5\frac{1}{2}$ ft. longer, the former edifice having only reached to the point marked by an upright joint in the North Wall of the Chancel to the Eastward of the little Lancet window, which window was carefully taken down and then replaced stone by stone.—The Chancel window on the South side is a copy of an old one, which stood in the same place, but was too much mutilated to be reinserted. The large stone over the Chancel door was put up again, as was also that over the North doorway. There was a similar but longer stone over the South door, but, as it was broken, a new arch was substituted for it. Four curiously worked stones, found in the old structure and supposed to have belonged to a still older and Norman Church, are built into the North and South Walls of the Chancel. The New Church was opened on the 27th. of June 1850, when Dr. Lonsdale, the Lord Bishop of Litchfield, preached the Sermon, and a large congregation attended. The whole cost of the Church, exclusive of the old materials and the cartage given, was about £650, which was thus defrayed :

Notice required by the Incorporated Society.

This Church was enlarged and the seats therein rearranged in the year 1850, by which means additional accommodation for 32 persons was obtained. A grant of £25 in aid of the undertaking was made by the Incorporated Society for the Building, Rebuilding and Repairing of Churches and Chapels, on condition that 65 seats described in a plan, should be set apart and declared to be free for ever for the use of the poor. The provision of the room previously to the alteration being to the extent of 132 seats, 25 of which number were free for the use of the poor.

R. J. BUDDICOM,
Rector.
